

TRIP OF PERSPECTIVE

DEEP SOUTH INVESTORS TOUR

June 5-10, 2023

Memphis, Tennessee; Birmingham, Montgomery, and Selma, Alabama; Jackson and parts of the Mississippi Delta

Why come?

AWARENESS

- Make the connection between our country's legacy of racial inequity and the ways that anti-Blackness persists today in major systems from home ownership to education to banking
- Dismantle stereotypes and build relationships

WITNESS

- Visit historical sites including the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, Ala., The National Memorial for Peace and Justice in Montgomery, Ala., and the National Civil Rights Museum at the Lorraine Motel in Memphis, Tenn.

ACTION

- Become a part of the solution personally and economically by investing with Hope Credit Union

Join the Faith and Money Network for an eye-opening, soul-changing Trip of Perspective to the Deep South, where we will learn from and be challenged by individuals and groups bringing transparency and creative solutions to racial and economic injustice.

SCHEDULE

The trip begins on the morning of June 5, so participants will need to be in Memphis on the evening of June 4. We'll visit historical sites in Tenn., Miss., and Ala. as well as meeting with local leaders and clergy members in Hope Credit Union's service area. Our time together will end with a closing gathering in Memphis on June 10.

COSTS

Participants will cover their own transportation to and from Memphis, Tenn. The trip fee of $2,800.00 covers trip leadership, administrative expenses, museum admission, ground transportation, lodging, and some meals.

The equitable distribution of power paves the way for justice. On this tour of the Deep South, participants will have opportunities to take anti-racist actions that can have ripple effects through an entire region and generations to come. This Trip of Perspective will renew and strengthen our commitments to solidarity, racial equity, and justice.
