

Margee Kooistra

When my husband died, I was sixty and wanted to fulfill our mutual commitment: to determine how to share the assets with which we had been blessed. When I learned about the Ministry of Money, my 'faith and money journey' was launched. At 80 I continue wrestling, grateful to have spiritual and financial companions and guides in Faith and Money Network with whom to share this demanding and exhilarating journey.