

TRIP OF PERSPECTIVE

CHOOSING SIMPLICITY AT RED SHIRT TABLE

October 19-25, 2025

Why come?

AWARENESS

Future generations will remember what we did and how we left some things undone, and yet we are still here living in the current of life that offers us all creative energy and majestic beauty. Together, we will practice a simple presence in the moment, on the earth, and with one another.

WITNESS

Visit sacred sites at Pine Ridge, Wounded Knee, Badlands, Black Hills, Bear Butte, Crazy Horse Memorial, and Lakota Art Show.

ACTION

Join the Faith and Money Network for an eye-opening, soul-changing Trip of Perspective to Red Shirt Table, where we will learn from and be challenged by the joys, challenges, culture and history of the Oglala Lakota oyate (people).

SCHEDULE

Our time together will begin on the morning of October 20th, so participants will need to arrive in Rapid City on October 19. We will spend the week visiting sacred sites and meeting with local leaders, artists, pastors, educators and activists.

COSTS

A changed heart. Participants will each cover their own transportation to and from Rapid City, South Dakota.

The trip fee of $1,295 covers trip leadership, local partnerships, ground transportation, lodging, and most meals.

Our lives are always intersecting with others who have different origins, and yet we continue to wander from place to place without really being there. When we wander with the intention of being present, then and only then will reality emerge in simple presence.

Come away with Faith and Money Network to really be there in a simple, quiet place.
